dent of Dempsey, Idaho, appeared before Probate Judge Arney yesterday morning and swore to a complaint charging David Munroe of the same place with seduction. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and Deputy Sheriff McDaniels left for Dempsey last night, but returned today empty-hended. He was informed that Munroe had left rather hastly for Utah. The young lady is in a delicate condition and she alleges the intimacy occurred last August. Munroe is a prosperous rancher of Dempsey.

A new supply of Herald map calendars has been received at this office. Words of hearty commendation have been received from England and other foreign countries by parties who sent the map to their friends.

This office is thankful to W. P. Plerce, the Jefferson avenue florist, for a beautiful bouquet of his choicest flowers. For pinks, carnations and Pearl des Jardins roses Mr. Pierce is certainly hard to beat.

Katle Putnam's rise to popularity has been steady and continuous. To her natural abilities she has added perse-vering and painstaking study so that she now ranks as one of the most fin-ished actresses on the American stage. She plays here tomorrow night.

Annie White entered suit yesterday against Parke White to whom she was married at Pieasant Hill, Neb., in 1877 but who, according to the complaint, has by desertion, neglect and failure to provide given grounds for a divorce.

Rhodes Brothers are carrying adver-tisements in all the principal Utah pa-pers for men on their canyon work. And yet there are some unreasonable enough to say they want none but Denver men. Such criticism is unjust. Rhodes Brothers are now of Ogden.

"Lucia di Lammermore" has been finally chosen as the opera for the bill at the Grand next Thursday, when in addition to a chorus of about 70 people the following well known stars will appear: Marie Tavary, Thea Dorre, Mile. Lichter, Bella Tomlins, Sofia Romani, Suzanne Ryane and Cav, Albert Guille, F. Michelena, Payne Clark, Max Eugene, Signor Abramhoff, C. W. Schuster and a dozen others.
